

The New England Daylily Society

The New England Daylily Society (NEDS) is one of many small horticultural clubs that are scattered across the United States and Canada and made up of people who are passionate about daylilies. Club members are eager to grow and promote daylilies because of their beauty, variety, and ease of care. Please visit the NEDS website at www.nedaylily.org and the American Hemerocallis Society website at www.daylilies.org.
